

Dangerous & Hazardous, Prohibited, & Owner's Risk Items

The following information is intended as a guide, however we always recommend that you check the restrictions of your chosen carrier via their website.

We also recommend that you check with the relevant government authorities at the destination/collection country, as each country has different policies as to what can be imported/exported into/from the country. If you are in any doubt, please contact our customer services team.

- Hazardous Items will not be accepted on to any of our services.
- Prohibited items will not be accepted on to any of our services.
- Owner's Risk Goods can be sent but will not be covered against loss or damage.

Your Responsibility

It is your responsibility, as the sender, to ensure the contents are acceptable. It is important to remember, you are the only person who knows what is inside your shipment. By accepting the parcel, neither Transglobal Express nor the courier acknowledges the contents are acceptable.
